Those celebrating nation's defeat can't be Indian: Vij

AMBALA, OCTOBER 26

Home and Health Minister Anil Vij today said the DNA of those who celebrate India's defeat in a game and burst crackers can't be Indian. Speaking to mediapersons, the minister said, "Win and loss are part of a game, but the DNA of those who celebrate India's defeat and burst crackers can't be Indian. Be careful of traitors hiding in our own house."

He also targeted J&K former Chief Minister Mehbooba Mufti and said, "Her own DNA is defective, and she has to prove how much of an Indian she is."

Notably, Mufti in a tweet had stated: "Why anger against Kashmiris for celebrating Pak's win?" — TNS

Main accused in Karnal mowing incident held

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

KARNAL, OCTOBER 26

The police arrested the main accused of mowing down a family in Hafed Colony in Butana village on October 10.

In the incident, two members of the family were killed, while several others were injured, following which residents blocked a road in Karnal on October 11.

The accused has been identified as Aman of Butana Dera in the Nilokheri block. The police have already arrested three persons, including Ajay of Bhenukhurd, Tushar of Nilokheri and Rajesh of Anjanthali, for giving him shelter last week.

"We arrested Aman from Kurukshetra today. Aman will be produced in a court, from where we will try to take him on police remand, as we have to determine the involvement of others in the case. We are yet to arrest his father, who is also an accused in the case," said Himandri Kaushik, ASP, Indri.

Top officials visit Tikri, say border shut by Delhi cops

To take up matter with police for removing barricades

RAVINDER SAINI
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JHAJJAR, OCTOBER 26

Top state officials, including Additional Chief Secretary (Home) Rajeev Arora and DGP PK Agrawal, Bahadurgarh industrialists and protesting farmers together visited Tikri on Tuesday and found that the border had been sealed by the Delhi Police.

The state authorities will now talk to the Delhi Police for opening one side of the Delhi-Rohtak highway that's blocked for the past 11 months.

"The visit happened after farmers and industrialists at a meeting held in Bahadurgarh town here blamed the Delhi Police for sealing the border and urged the officials to verify the fact by going to Tikri. Thereafter, the officials went there and found multi-layered barricading done by the Delhi Police. Later, they returned to the meeting venue and resumed the dialogue with the farmers," said sources.

After the meeting, Arora said: "We will have to talk to the Delhi Police to open one lane from both the sides. There is a possibility of opening one lane if the blockade from the Delhi side is removed. Before talking to the Delhi Police, we wanted to ensure that the road is open from our side hence today's meeting was convened to discuss it with the farmers."

Sources said six delegates each of farmers and industrialists attended the meeting that lasted for around four hours. "The farmers also raised the issues of potable water, power supply and poor sanitary conditions."

"After the Tikri visit, the officials admitted that the Delhi Police have sealed of the border hence now it is the responsibility of the state to mount pressure on them to remove the barricades as industries are paying a hefty price," said Narendra Chhikara, senior vice-president, Bahadurgarh Chamber of Commerce and Industries.

Farmers protest the Lakhimpur Kheri incident in Karnal.

Farmers' leaders in no mood to relent

KARNAL, OCTOBER 26

The movement against the Centre's three farm laws at the Delhi borders completed eleven months on Tuesday.

During these months, farmers have been protesting across the country, demanding the repeal of the three laws along with a law that guarantees MSP, the SKM leaders said in a joint statement.

They said the historic farmers' movement running in India since November 26, 2020, at the Delhi borders had completed eleven months. "Farmers have been demanding that their livelihoods be protected from 'corporate loot' in unregulated markets," they added.

PROTEST OVER KHERI INCIDENT

On the SKM call, farmers under the BKU on Monday staged dharnas outside the mini-secretariats in Karnal and Kaithal, seeking action against MoS Ajay Mishra Tani in the Lakhimpur Kheri incident. They handed over memorandums to the district officials for the President.

The farm leaders reiterated that they won't go home until their demands were fulfilled. Meanwhile, the SKM leaders said the Monday protest call received a good response across the country. — TNS
